Thursday 30th, when you receive this newsletter this event will have happened This is the 4th Children's Activity Day - "Let's Go Fishing" - previous ones in last Summer, Autumn and this Easter. Parents or a carer stay with the child and are welcome to join in the activities. Events have proved very popular with children and parents/grandparents. Attendance at previous events has increased each time with up to 30 children at Easter. So far we have 19 down to come this time (several who have been before) and there is room for a few more. They are fun activities with a Christian message and they finish with a free lunch.

Bradford on Avon United Church . . .

. . . has been blessed by a beautiful Cross, gifted to us by Richard Filler, a well known wood sculptor living in North Somerset. The Cross has been made entirely from drift wood found on the local river banks. If you are visiting B.O.A. do contact us and we will arrange for you to see it.
